Dear Mr. Rogers:

This in response to your letter of July 6, 1973 in which you request an interpretation of Section 23 of the Consumer Product Safety Act, relating to litigation between private parties. It would not be appropriate for this Commission to comment on the provisions of Section 23 as it does not directly involve the functions of the Consumer Product Safety Commission.

I understand your concern with interpreting the new Act, but I am sure you can understand our position on this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Michael A. Brown
Acting General Counsel
