Mr. Carl Manes, President

6353 N. 64th Street
Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53218

Dear Mr. Manes:

We are in receipt of a copy of your letter sent to the Uniroyal Tire Company complaining of a Uniroyal tire which you believe to be defective. The Consumer Product Safety Act, which established the Consumer Product Safety Commission, excludes motor vehicle equipment, including tires, from the definition of a consumer product.

I have, however, taken the liberty of forwarding a copy of your letter to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration which deals with matters involving tire safety.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Brown
