MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF RESPONDENT CRAIG ZUCKER’S FIRST APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO TAKE DEPOSITIONS

Pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 1025.35, Respondent Craig Zucker seeks leave to take depositions upon oral examination in defense of Complaint Counsel’s allegations in the above proceeding.

Section 1025.31 of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations contains general provisions concerning discovery. Section 1025.31(c)(1) provides:

Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is within the Commission’s statutory authority and is relevant to the subject matter involved in the proceedings, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the hearing if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

16 C.F.R. § 1025.31(c)(1).

The proposed deponents consist of two categories of persons. First, Respondent seeks leave to depose some employees (and one former employee) of the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (“CPSC”) who were identified by Complaint Counsel as assisting in responding to Respondent’s interrogatories, or who are identified in the public record as participating in the CPSC’s investigation into aggregated masses of high-powered magnets.

Second, Respondent seeks leave to depose the expert witnesses designated by Complaint Counsel. Although Complaint Counsel has identified expert witnesses, Complaint Counsel has not provided a substantive response to Respondent’s interrogatory requesting the subject matter of each expert’s testimony, the substance of the facts and opinions of each expert and a summary of the grounds for each expert’s opinions.

The testimony of each of these persons is clearly relevant to the subject matter involved in this proceeding and within the scope of permissible discovery. Consequently, Respondent respectfully requests that his application be granted.
