In accordance with the Economy Act, 31 U.S.C. 1535, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF) agrees to reimburse the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) for the acquisition of explosive pest control devices for examination by ATF as part of a study between ATF and the CPSC.

The Study is necessary to make a determination as to the types of products these are. CPSC has determined that many of these devices are explosives devices, but some may be considered destructive devices as well. We plan a laboratory analysis as well as a field test. This will be reimbursed to OPAC ID # 6100001.
