

U.S. CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION (CPSC)

Report for Fiscal Year 2014

The Administration of
The Freedom of Information Act

I. BASIC INFORMATION REGARDING THE REPORT

1. Contact for questions about the report: Alberta Mills, Acting Director, Secretariat/Office of the Secretary, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, 4330 East West Highway, Suite 820, Bethesda, MD 20814-4408, Telephone: 301-504-7923, Facsimile: 301-504-0127. 2. A paper copy of the report is available from CPSC's Secretariat/Office of the Secretary at the address above.

II. MAKING A FOIA REQUEST

1. All Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests received by the CPSC are processed at CPSC's headquarters. The address is: Freedom of Information Act Request, Secretariat/Office of the Secretary, U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, 4330 East West Highway, Suite 820, Bethesda, MD 20814-4408. Telephone: 301-504-7923, Facsimile: 301-504-0127. Email: amills@cpsc.gov or cpsec-foia@cpsc.gov.
 - a. Other Reference Information about the Agency: The CPSC's website, www.cpsc.gov, contains extensive information about the agency's activities, including agency meetings, product recalls and hazards, job vacancies, publications, a calendar of public meetings, and other important information. This site also contains CPSC's Guide to Public Information and includes an interactive feature that allows consumers to report unsafe products and related injuries electronically to a publicly available consumer product safety information database, Saferproducts.gov. CPSC maintains an electronic mail address: Info@cpsc.gov. This electronic mail address can be used to inquire about product recalls or to report potential product hazards. The CPSC's public reference reading room contains numerous agency records, including the materials CPSC makes available for public inspection and copying pursuant to FOIA, 5 U.S.C. §§552(a)(2) and (5). The reading room is accessed via Suite 419 at the CPSC's headquarters at: 4330 East West Highway, Bethesda, MD 20814-4408, after calling the Secretariat/Office of the Secretary for an appointment at 301-504-7923. Reading room records are also available through the CPSC's electronic reading room on CPSC's website: www.cpsc.gov, in the "Newsroom – FOIA" section.

- b. Response Time Ranges: CPSC's response to FOIA requests is complicated by the statutory requirements of section 6(b) of the Consumer Product Safety Act (CPSA) as described below, which increases the length of time needed to process requests.

During fiscal year 2014, the CPSC responded to simple FOIA requests in an average time of 32 days. Simple requests are requests for materials that are frequently requested or where we have anticipated the subject of the requests. More complex requests require additional preparation and processing time.

The average time to complete complex requests in fiscal year 2014 was 81 days. Complex requests involve one or more of the following: voluminous records or records that are not easily accessible and have to be collected from several Commission offices or from archived storage facilities; proprietary data; material with privacy concerns; material that is part of an investigatory file; or materials where review is required by section 6(b) of the Consumer Product Safety Act (CPSA), 15 U.S.C. § 2055(b).¹

The CPSC reviews all agency records that are responsive to FOIA requests according to the requirements of section 6(b). The notifications and the extensive analyses required by section 6(b) are in addition to procedures routinely conducted pursuant to the FOIA. The process not only involves staff in the Offices of the Secretary and the General Counsel, but also frequently involves other technical staff whose expertise is required to understand the materials being processed. The time-consuming reviews and material preparations for FOIA requests involving section 6(b) lengthen the period of time required for the processing of these requests.

¹ On June 9, 1980, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that section 6(b) of the CPSA applies to FOIA Requests, CPSC v. GTE Sylvania, 447 U.S. 102 (1980). Section 6(b) requires that, with certain exceptions, the Commission notify manufacturers or private labelers of consumer products before disclosing information from which their identities can be readily ascertained by the public. The Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act of 2008, Pub. L. No. 110-314 (2008), amended the notification time provisions in section 6 of the CPSA. 15 U.S.C § 2055. Section 6(b) prohibits the disclosure of information earlier than 15 days after notification to identified firms to allow the firms to make claims and comments. Firms must be given 5 days to file suit to enjoin the disclosure if they claim that the information is confidential or inaccurate. Efforts to satisfy the statutory requirements in the CPSA necessarily delay many responses to FOIA requests.

2. The CPSC generally does not disclose to the public the following types of information.
 - a. Documents prohibited from disclosure by the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. §§ 2055(a), (b) and (e)(1), which prohibits the release of trade secrets and confidential commercial or financial information; information that identifies manufacturers of consumer products, unless the CPSC has taken reasonable steps to assure it is accurate, its release would be fair under the circumstances, and its release is reasonably related to effectuating the purposes of the acts the Commission administers; and information reported by manufacturers to the Commission under section 37 of the CPSA.
 - b. Information that identifies injured persons and the persons who treated them, without their consent to disclosure.
 - c. Certain inter-agency and intra-agency memoranda containing opinions and recommendations prepared to assist in decision-making.
 - d. Personnel, medical, and similar files, the disclosure of which constitutes a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
 - e. Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes when disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, reveal identities of confidential information sources, or would disclose techniques, guidelines and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions.

III. ACRONYMS, DEFINITIONS AND EXEMPTIONS

1. Agency-Specific Acronyms or Other Terms.
 - a. CPSA • Consumer Product Safety Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 2051-2084.
 - b. CPSC or Commission • Consumer Product Safety Commission.
 - c. Section 6(a) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. § 2055(a) • prohibits the disclosure of trade secrets, confidential or proprietary business information or other matters referred to in 18 U.S.C. §1905 or FOIA Exemption 4; requires notification to submitters of information prior to disclosure of any potential confidential information.
 - d. Section 6(b) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. § 2055(b) • prohibits the disclosure of information from which the identity of a manufacturer or private labeler of a consumer product can be readily ascertained by the public, earlier than 15 days after notification of the manufacturer or private labeler; requires the Commission to take reasonable steps to assure, prior to disclosure, that the information to be disclosed is accurate, that the disclosure is fair in the circumstances and that disclosure is reasonably related to effectuating the purposes of the statutes that the Commission administers; requires the Commission to notify a firm 5 days prior to disclosure of information that the firm claims is inaccurate, but for which the Commission believes it has complied with the requirements of section 6(b)(1).

- e. Section 6(e)(1) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. § 2055(e)(1) • prohibits the disclosure of information furnished to the Commission under section 37 of the CPSA.
- f. Section 15(b) submissions • Section 15(b) of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. § 2064(b), requires manufacturers, distributors, or retailers of consumer products to report to the Commission hazardous products and products that fail to comply with any other rule, regulation, standard, or ban under the CPSA or any other Act enforced by the Commission.
- g. Section 37 • Section 37 of the CPSA, 15 U.S.C. § 2084, requires manufacturers to report certain information on consumer product lawsuits, if certain statutory criteria are met.

2. Definitions Used in This Report:

- a. Administrative Appeal – a request to a federal agency asking that the agency review at a higher administrative level a FOIA determination made by the agency at the initial request level.
- b. Average Number – the number obtained by dividing the sum of a group of numbers by the quantity of numbers in the group. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the average number is 8.
- c. Backlog – the number of requests or administrative appeals that are pending at an agency at the end of the fiscal year that are beyond the statutory time period for a response.
- d. Component – for agencies that process requests on a decentralized basis, a “component” is an entity, also sometimes referred to as an Office, Division, Bureau, Center, or Directorate, within the agency that processes FOIA requests. The FOIA now requires that agencies include in their Annual FOIA Report data for the agency overall and for each principal component of the agency.
- e. Consultation – the procedure whereby the agency responding to a FOIA request first forwards a record to another agency for its review because that other agency has an interest in the document. Once the agency in receipt of the consultation finishes its review of the record, it responds to the agency that forwarded it. That agency, in turn, will then respond to the FOIA requester.
- f. Exemption 3 Statute – a federal statute that exempts information from disclosure and which the agency relies on to withhold information under subsection (b)(3) of the FOIA.
- g. FOIA Request – a FOIA request is generally a request to a federal agency for access to records concerning another person (i.e., a “third-party” request), an organization, or a particular topic of interest. FOIA requests also include requests made by requesters seeking records concerning themselves (i.e., “first-party” requests) when those requesters are not subject to the Privacy Act, such as non-U.S. citizens. Moreover, because all first-party requesters should be afforded the benefit of the access provisions of the FOIA, as well as those of the Privacy Act, FOIA requests also include any first-party requests where an agency determines that it must search beyond its Privacy Act “systems of records” or where a Privacy Act exemption applies, and the agency looks to FOIA to afford the greatest possible access. All requests which require the agency to use the FOIA in responding to the requester are included in this report.

Additionally, a FOIA request includes records referred to the agency for processing and direct response to the requester. It does not, however, include records for which the agency has received a consultation from another agency. (Consultations are reported separately in Section XII of this report.)

- h. Full Grant – an agency decision to disclose all records in full in response to a FOIA request.
- i. Full Denial – an agency decision not to release any records in response to a FOIA request because the records are exempt in their entirety under one or more of the FOIA exemptions, or because of a procedural reason, such as when no records could be located.
- j. Median Number – the middle, not average, number. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the median is 7.
- k. Multi-Track Processing – a system in which simple requests requiring relatively minimal review are placed in one processing track and more voluminous and complex requests are placed in one or more other tracks. Requests granted expedited processing are placed in yet another track. Requests in each track are processed on a first in/first out basis.
 - i. Expedited Processing – an agency will process a FOIA request on an expedited basis when a requester satisfies the requirements for expedited processing, as set forth in the statute and in agency regulations.
 - ii. Simple Request – a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in its fastest (non-expedited) track, based on the low volume and/or simplicity of the records requested.
 - iii. Complex Request – a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in a slower track based on the high volume and/or complexity of the records requested.
- l. Partial Grant/Partial Denial – in response to a FOIA request, an agency decision to disclose portions of the records and to withhold other portions that are exempt under the FOIA, or to otherwise deny a portion of the request for a procedural reason.
- m. Pending Request or Pending Administrative Appeal – a request or administrative appeal for which an agency has not taken final action in all respects.

- n. Perfect Request – a request for records that reasonably describes such records and is made in accordance with published rules stating the time, place, fees (if any), and procedures to be followed.
- o. Processed Request or Processed Administrative Appeal – a request or administrative appeal for which an agency has taken final action in all respects.
- p. Range in Number of Days – the lowest and highest number of days to process requests or administrative appeals.
- q. Time Limits – the time period in the statute for an agency to respond to a FOIA request (ordinarily 20 working days from receipt of a perfected FOIA request).

3. The FOIA Exemptions from Disclosure:

- a. Exemption 1: classified national defense and foreign relations information
- b. Exemption 2: internal agency rules and practices
- c. Exemption 3: information that is prohibited from disclosure by another federal law
- d. Exemption 4: trade secrets and other confidential business information
- e. Exemption 5: inter-agency or intra-agency communications that are protected by legal privileges
- f. Exemption 6: information involving matters of personal privacy
- g. Exemption 7: records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, to the extent that the production of those records (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual
- h. Exemption 8: information relating to the supervision of financial institutions
- i. Exemption 9: geological information on wells

F. Discussion of Other FOIA Activities

Other Statistics Significant to Agency

1. CPSA Section 6(b)(1) notifications made to manufacturers or private labelers of consumer products to inform them of the proposed disclosure of information that identifies their products and allow them to comment on the disclosure. (Many notifications are made at the time the documents are initially filed, before the agency has received a FOIA request.) • 6,639
2. CPSA Section 6(b)(2) notifications made to manufacturers or private labelers to inform them 10 days prior to disclosure of information that the firms had claimed was inaccurate or unfair to release, but for which the CPSC believes it has complied with the requirements of Section 6(b)(1) and has overruled the comments or claims made by the firm • 203
3. Instances where CPSA Section 6(b)(1) applied to requested materials and, upon completion of notifications and other requirements of Sections 6(b)(1) and 6(b)(2), the CPSC disclosed materials • 1,055
4. CPSA Section 6(a)(3) notifications made to submitters of information to the Commission prior to disclosure of the potential confidential information • 283
5. CPSA Section 6(a)(5) notifications made to submitters of information 10 days prior to the intended disclosure, where the CPSC had overruled any claims regarding proprietary or confidential business information • 137

Other Agency Efforts to Improve Timeliness of FOIA Performance and to Make Records Available to the Public -

The CPSC has increased its activities to make more records of interest available to the public by expanding the placement of records on its website (www.cpsc.gov). The CPSC's website had 10,842,237 visits during fiscal year 2014 and 22,657,490 page reviews.

The Commission maintained a Publicly Available Consumer Product Safety Information Database, SaferProducts.gov. The Database allows the public to search online immediately for information submitted to the Commission's website about consumer products. Members of the public can search the Database for safety information about products that are in their home already, or that they may be thinking about purchasing. Since March 11, 2011, reports of harm, or “Reports,” that contain minimum information required by law and that provide the submitters’ consent, are posted in the Database on our website at:

www.SaferProducts.gov. In general, the public can search the Database and review Reports approximately 15 business days after the Report is submitted to the CPSC. At present, the Database contains approximately 23,301 publicly available reports.

Product manufacturers (including importers) and private labelers that are identified in a Report may submit comments to be displayed in the Database along with the Report. Information about product recalls is also available for search and review in the Database. The Database represents a new level of transparency for the CPSC, allowing the public to have immediate access to safety information reported to the Commission about consumer products. The Saferproducts.gov database had 2,434,746 visits and 32,971,850 page views.

The Commission continues to maintain materials of interest to the public in a reading room in its headquarters location. No visitor used the reading room in FY14. The Commission’s Secretariat/Office of the Secretary, (301) 504-7923 or cpsc-foia@cpsc.gov, is available to assist the public in locating information or with preparing an FOIA request for information.
