

U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission
LOG OF MEETING

SUBJECT: Discussion and Demonstration of novoloid barrier fabrics

DATE OF MEETING: December 12, 2001

LOG ENTRY SOURCE: Linda Fansler, LS

DATE OF LOG ENTRY: December 19, 2001

LOCATION: U. S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, Laboratory Sciences, 10901 Darnestown Rd. Gaithersburg, MD

CPSC ATTENDEE(S):

Dale Ray, EC, upholstered furniture project manager
Drew Bernatz, LS
Linda Fansler, LS

NON-CPSC ATTENDEE(S):

Mr. Joseph S. Hayes, Jr. American Kynol, Inc.
Mr. Patrick J. Hayes, American Kynol, Inc.
Ms. Patty K. Adair American Textile Manufacturers Institute
Mr. Phillip J. Wakelyn, National Cotton Council of America

SUMMARY OF MEETING: CPSC staff met with representatives of American Kynol

CPSC 8 (21) Clearance

No Mfrs/Private Labels or Products Identified
✓ Excepted by Rulemaking
Firms Notified,
Comments Processed.
6-26-02
SB

to discuss CPSC laboratory testing of a spunlaced nonwoven barrier fabric made with 100% Kynol(TM) novoloid fibers. CPSC staff is in the process of testing the Kynol barrier fabric as part of a test program evaluating barrier fabrics and materials. CPSC laboratory staff also demonstrated and discussed the test procedure as outlined in the October 2001 Briefing Package on Upholstered Furniture Flammability: Regulatory Options.