About 8 children per year die after becoming entangled in a window covering cord.

Use cordless or inaccessible cord window coverings where young children live or visit.

Do not place cribs, beds and furniture close to the windows; children can climb on them and access window covering cords.

Prevent Child Strangulations! Incidents are preventable.