

U.S. CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION LOG OF MEETING

SUBJECT: Commissioner Feldman and Staff meet with Residential Elevator Safety Reps

DATE OF MEETING: April 8, 2019

LOG ENTRY SOURCE: Teddy Tanzer

DATE OF LOG ENTRY: April 10, 2019

LOCATION: CPSC HQ, Hearing Room B

CPSC ATTENDEE(S): Commissioner Peter Feldman, Michael Lynch, Theodore Tanzer

NON-CPSC ATTENDEE(S): Andrew Cash, Krugler & Fredericks, LLC, David Krugler, Krugler & Fredericks, LLC, Dennis Brickman, ESI, Mike and Brandi Helvey, and Ben and Nicole Hartz.

SUMMARY OF MEETING: Commissioner Peter Feldman and Staff meet with residential elevator safety representatives including Andrew Cash, Krugler & Fredericks, LLC, David Krugler, Krugler & Fredericks, LLC, Dennis Brickman, ESI, Mike and Brandi Helvey, and Ben and Nicole Hartz. The meeting was introductory in nature and discussion included issues related to residential elevator safety. Specifically, the attendees raised included problems related to home elevator safety, the costs for solutions, and how many lives potentially could be saved if solutions were implemented. The meeting focused on how many elevators have been manufactured and installed, years elevators of manufacture involved in incidents, and previous attempts at recalls. Parents of victims also shared their stories about injuries or deaths related to the elevators in question. The meeting was requested by Andrew Cash.