MEETING SUMMARY:

Rachel Weintraub of Consumer Federation of America, chaired the meeting and ASTM F15 Staff manager, Molly Lynyak participated and provided information about ASTM and how voluntary standards are developed at ASTM. The discussion included drafting the scope of the potential standard and a review of the known data. CPSC staff provided a data spreadsheets of 5 known incidents. Rachael Weintraub had many other incidents and shared a compiled chart.

This is not yet an official F15 subcommittee. Rachel Weintraub and Molly Lynyak will share the draft scope with the F15.90 Executive Committee at their upcoming February 18, 2020 meeting. F15.90 will decide whether to form a subcommittee to create a safety standard for motorized partitions.
