SUMMARY OF MEETING:

The task group discussed the stability device shown in figure A1.28 of F406. There has been some confusion as to whether or not the device should have a top shelf. A draft ballot was circulated prior to the meeting that contained a proposed new figure containing a top shelf and specifications for the revised fixture. Topics of discussion included:

- The reference location on each shelf (top or middle). The group agreed with the top of the shelf.
- Adding a rationale for the figure change to the appendix of the standard. The group decided the rationale to improve the figure was not needed.

Next steps: hearing no further clarifications to the figure, the task group chair proposed sending the item out to a ballot sometime this summer.
