Summary of Meeting:

This meeting was the first CO Alliance meeting since December 5, 2019. The CO Alliance has reserved November 4 and 5, 2020 in Lebanon, NH for the next CO Conference.

The group discussed possible topics for the next CO Conference, including survivor stories, fire fighters and CO poisoning, new technologies for personally monitoring CO exposure, the realtor perspective of CO alarms, CO requirements in codes, and occupational CO requirements.

The American Red Cross has distributed and installed almost all of the CO alarms provided and are looking for more alarms. The American Red Cross is looking to install 1,000 alarms over the next year in NH and VT.

The CO Alliance is looking for funding for the CO Conference. The goal is to keep the Conference free, but they may be forced to charge a nominal fee.

Discussion on other potential conferences and speaking events coming up.

Discussion on the CO Alliance website, the group needs a volunteer to maintain the website. The website may need to another server.

Updates from participants.

The next meeting was not scheduled but is anticipated for the end of April or May.
