

UNITED STATES CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION 4330 EAST WEST HIGHWAY BETHESDA, MD 20814

CHAIR ALEXANDER HOEHN-SARIC

March 28, 2023

The Honorable Patty Murray President Pro Tempore of the Senate Office of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Murray:

I am pleased to present the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission's (CPSC's) Fiscal Year (FY) 2022 Notification and Federal Employee Antidiscrimination and Retaliation Act of 2002 (No FEAR Act) Annual Report.

During FY 2022, the CPSC continued to work diligently to promote policies and initiatives to prevent violations of federal anti-discrimination and whistleblower laws. This work included the issuance of agency policy statements on non-discrimination in employment and harassment prevention. The CPSC also disseminated important information through quarterly Web postings of its complaint data, as required by the No FEAR Act. We continued to provide anti-discrimination and anti-retaliation training for executives, managers, supervisors, and employees. In FY 2022, new employees received No FEAR Act training within 90 days of appointment to the agency. The CPSC also stressed the importance of a fair and expeditious complaint process to ensure EEO compliance and accountability during FY 2022.

In accordance with goals set forth by the CPSC Strategic Plan, the CPSC promoted workforce acceptance and celebration of cultural and individual differences. The CPSC also continued to conduct targeted outreach activities to ensure that our applicant pools are reflective of our nation's diversity. The CPSC remains fully committed to the preservation of merit system principles to guarantee that the federal government has an effective and professional civilian workforce.

The Honorable Patty Murray March 28, 2023 Page 2

§724.302(A) (7) – 2022 Reporting Obligations - Analysis of Trends, Causal Analysis, and Practical Knowledge Gained Through Experience

Trend and Causal Analysis

During Fiscal Year (FY) 2022, no cases were in federal district court. In addition, administrative EEO complaints filed against the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) remained low. The agency completed one (1) informal counseling case with settlement and one (1) formal complaint. All of the cases were timely processed. At the end of FY22, there was zero (0) formal complaints awaiting hearings and zero (0) cases in the appeal stage.

CPSC consistently endeavors to resolve complaints at the lowest level and offers Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) during the informal and formal stages of the EEO process.

Integration of EEO into the Agency Strategic Mission

On February 2, 2022, Chair Alexander Hoehn-Saric issued the annual Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and Anti-Harassment Policy Statements. This reaffirmed his commitment to uphold EEO principles and ensure that CPSC complies with all workplace federal discrimination laws and regulations.

Actions planned or taken to improve complaint or civil rights programs of the agency

CPSC is committed to eliminating discrimination and creating conditions that promote diversity and inclusion in the workplace. CPSC is also committed to EEO principles and practices in all of its management decisions and personnel activities. Fostering and building a diverse workforce is a necessity, and to that end CPSC has continued its efforts to attract underrepresented candidates and improve its diversity hiring initiatives. From training its managers and employees on their EEO rights and responsibilities, providing equal opportunities to all individuals, and providing a prompt, fair, and impartial review, and adjudication of all allegations of discrimination, CPSC further assures that every effort will be made to ensure a workplace free of discrimination and harassment.

During FY22, CPSC achieved significant results in promoting merit system principles, including EEO and the strategic management of human capital. Some noteworthy achievements are set forth as follows:

- > Held special observance programs, and continued special emphasis outreach activities;
- > Encouraged the resolution of complaints at the lowest level possible; and
- > Increased targeted recruiting for vacancies for mission critical full-time positions.

CPSC plans the following actions to improve the agency's complaint and EEO program:

- > Continue ongoing diversity training; and
- > Conduct regular intervals alternative dispute resolution training.

Appendix C

§724.302(A) (9) – 2022 Reporting Obligations – Training Plan

Instructional materials and method of training

- The No FEAR Act Notice and a fact sheet are posted on both the CPSC intranet and external website and on agency bulletin boards.
- The No FEAR Act Notice is distributed to new employees upon in-processing and a mandatory training notice is sent to employees.
- The New Employee Checklist (for supervisor use) includes the No FEAR Act training as an employee responsibility within 90 days of entrance on duty at the agency.
- Mandatory training is delivered online through the CPSC FedTalent System (an eLearning development tool) and employees may access the training at any time from their desktop. The training is interactive with testing at the end of each training module. Employees must score 70 percent or higher on each test to receive credit for course completion.
- No FEAR Act training is assigned to new employees automatically by the training system via email.
- A brief overview of the No FEAR Act with the appropriate handouts is provided during all EEO type training.
- During FY22, new employee orientation continued to include an overview of EEO rights and responsibilities, emphasizing that an aggrieved person must contact an EEO counselor with 45 calendar days of the matter alleged to be discriminatory.

The training schedule

Initial Training

- In June 2023, an email will be sent to all employees providing the No FEAR Act Notice detailing instructions for completing the training no later than September 2023.
- Supervisors of new employees are provided a quarterly email reminder that their new employee must complete the training within 90 days of entrance on duty at the agency.

Follow-up training

• An email to all employees providing the No FEAR Act notice and detailing instructions for completing the training no later than a date in each of the calendar years (date is to be determined). CPSC last conducted the No FEAR Act refresher training for 100% of the workforce in FY21.

The means of documenting completion of training

- Reports are produced from the appropriate database detailing the name of employees that have completed the training. For new employees, these reports are compared to the new hire report to determine who, if any, must complete the training. The report serves as the means for documenting the training completion.
- Supervisors are held accountable for ensuring their employees complete the training.
