Request ID	Request Description	Request Type	Organization
21-A-00005	This request was closed and we never received the information (Date Range for Record Search: From 09/03/2016 To 04/30/2021)	Appeal	Schuerman Smith & Assoc.
21-A-00006	1) It appears that no actual search and retrieval of records was done. 2) It appears that no actual review of records was performed. 3) Despite the obligation of an agency to take steps to preserve records potentially responsive to a FOIA request and/or Appeal, no such steps to preserve the records appear to have been taken. 4) This lack of preservation could result in destruction or despoliation of responsive records. 5) While some records might be deemed to fall under the b(7)(A) exemption, emails that are not in any investigative system of records would not automatically fall under that category as a blanket matter. 6) Some emails that contain the word PELOTON may not be investigative in nature and may not relate to an active investigation.	Appeal	-
21-A-00007	no Lessons Learned Report was provided, only a link to the public OIG investigation report, which was already available online. In response to my request, no reason given for withholding the requested document. Nor was any administrative appeal rights identified in the letter. For this reason, I respectfully appeal the denial of my request.	Appeal	-

21-A-00010	"I ask that this request be remanded to the CPSC FOIA Division, to either (1) produce the voluntarily-submitted material that is subject to release pursuant to Section 6(b)(4), or (2) confirm that none of the voluntarily-submitted material being withheld by the FOIA Division relates to a consumer product with respect to which the CPSC has filed an action under section 2061, or which the Commission has reasonable cause to believe is in violation of any relevant consumer product safety rule or provision, or which is concerning a rulemaking proceeding, an adjudicatory proceeding, or other administrative or judicial proceeding under the CPSA." 21-A-00011	the CPSC has failed to disclose any specific pending or contemplated law enforcement proceeding as basis for withholding documents in direct violation of The U.S. Dep't of Justice Guide to the Freedom of Information Act, Exemption 7(A). Moreover, given that the CAP would have been something Swagway submitted to the CPSC as part of the voluntary recall, the CAP would not be part of an investigatory file or "expected to cause some articulable harm to that proceeding."	Appeal	McCOY LEAVITT LASKEY LLC
21-A-00012	I'm writing to appeal FOIA request 21-F-00398 (attached). I was surprised to read that the data cannot be provided, because we requested the exact same data for an earlier period in 2017 and we received it - it took a while, but Ms. Austin Peartree and Ms. Mills provided the data, see email correspondence below. Unfortunately, the monthly data that were suggested in the decision letter do not help. Therefore, we would be very thankful if you could maybe get in touch with Ms. Austin Peartree and Ms. Mills to see if the data could be provided. I attached the recall IDs again for the cases we are interested in.	Appeal	-
21-A-00013	No reasonable likelihood of law enforcement proceeding against Peloton, no reason provided to support the assertion that release would harm that investigation	Appeal	-

21-F-00403	I represent a [REDACTED] family whose pre-lit Christmas tree from Home Depot (sold under the Home Accents Holidays brand) appears to have started a fire in their home in November 2019. We are investigating the incident and saw that certain Home Accents Holiday Artificial Christmas Trees were recalled by the USCPSC because of a defective foot-pedal controller. I believe the recall number may be 20-153. I am writing to request all available public information regarding this recall. The USCPSC website states that the manufacturer has received 509 reports of incidents of overheating involving the foot-pedal controller, including one report of a burn. I would like a copy of any reports, investigative materials, correspondence with Home Depot and/or the manufacturers of the Christmas trees it sells under the Home Accents Holidays brand, materials regarding the recall, incident reports, etc. The SKU on the tree in my clients' home does not appear to be among the trees subject to the CPSC recall and has a SKU of 1004339974 (described as a '7.5 ft. Pre-lit Manchester Fir SLM'). However, the tree that appears to have caught fire in my clients' home has a foot-pedal control entirely like the ones subject to USCPSC recall and was purchased in 2019 from Home Depot (like the trees subject to the recall). Thus, if there are any reports regarding this tree which are kept separately from those covered by recall 20-153, this request is intended to include such documents.	FOIA	McDonald Law Office PLLC
