

AGENCY INVENTORY ANALYSIS SERVICE CONTRACT INVENTORY CONSUMER PRODUCT SAFETY COMMISSION FY 2014

In accordance with section 743(e) of Division C of the FY 2011 Consolidated Appropriations Act, P.L. 111-117, the Consumer Product Safety Commission's agency inventory analysis includes a review of the contracts and information in the inventory as set forth below:

1. The Consumer Product Safety Commission has reviewed the identified two contracts (Special Interest Functions, D302 and D307- see chart below) in the inventory to determine whether any personal services contracts have been entered into, and are being performed, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

PSCs	Special Interest Function	FY-2014 Obligation
R302	IT Systems Development Services	$27,048
R307	Automated Information Systems Services	$173,755.98

The review included a questionnaire checklist given to the Contracting Officer Representative (COR) for each contract. Based on the review it has been determined that no personal services contracts have been entered into during this period.

2. The Consumer Product Safety Commission has given special management attention, as set forth in FAR 37.114, to functions that are closely associated with inherently governmental functions.
3. Based on the review of each Special Interest Function contracts (as defined in FAR 7.5) it has been determined that the Consumer Product Safety Commission is not using contractor employees to perform inherently governmental functions.
4. The Consumer Product Safety Commission has specific safeguards and monitoring systems in place to ensure that work being performed by contractors has not changed or expanded during performance to become an inherently governmental function. These safeguards involve review of performance by the CPSC Contracting Officer's Representatives (COR) and Procurement Officials.

5. The Consumer Product Safety Commission is not using contractor employees to perform critical functions in such a way that could affect the ability of the agency to maintain control of its mission and operations.
6. The Consumer Product Safety Commission has ensured that there are sufficient internal agency resources to manage and oversee contracts effectively.
