Commissioner Mary Sheila Gall
Commissioner Thomas H. Moore

ITEM:

Withdrawal of 1978 Interagency Agreement with the Decorated Glass Industry
(OS# 5980)

DECISION:

The Commission voted unanimously (3-0) to withdraw the Commission's acceptance of a voluntary agreement reached in 1978 by CPSC, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) with the decorated glass industry concerning allowable levels in lead decorations on the lip-and-rim area of glasses. Following revocation of the 1978 agreement, the FDA will publish a policy and interpretation announcing that lead in the lip-and-rim area will be considered a non-approved food additive and prohibited.

For the Commission:
