LOG OF MEETING

DATE: August 9, 2010

PARTICIPANTS: Steve Lamar and Rebecca Mond of the American Apparel and Footwear Association (AAFA), Commissioner Robert Adler, Jason Levine (Legal Counsel to Commissioner Adler) and Jana Fong-Swamidoss (Legal Counsel to Commissioner Adler).

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS: The AAFA representatives raised concerns regarding the Commission's implementation of third party testing for youth clothing textiles and children's sleepwear as required by the Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act (CPSIA). Also, they stated some concerns they have regarding the Foreign Manufacturers Legal Accountability Act, which is currently being considered by Congress. Commissioner Adler encouraged the representatives to submit formal comments on both matters to allow the Association's concerns to be a part of the Commission record.
