DATE: February 1, 2010

LOCATION: CPSC, 4330 East West Highway, Bethesda MD 20814

SUBJECT: Courtesy Call: Breast Cancer Fund visited with Commissioner Adler and CPSC staff

ATTENDEES: Nancy Buermeyer, Senior Policy Strategist (BCF) and Daniel Penchina with the Raben Group on behalf of BCF

OBSERVERS: Matthew Cohen, Mintz Levin Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo, P.C.

CPSC ATTENDEES: Robert Adler, Commissioner; Jason Levine, Legal Counsel, Michael Babich, PhD, Chemical Hazards Program Coordinator

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS: The Breast Cancer Fund representatives provided an overview of the organization's mission with a focus on areas that overlap with CPSC jurisdiction. The BCF representatives spoke at length regarding phthalates and the newly formed Chronic Hazard Advisory Panel examining phthalates. The attendees discussed some of the procedures of the CHAP and the BCF representatives volunteered to assist the panel or the Commission as it reviews phthalates.
